

This proposal can bring more harm than good. If airlines want to make money on the use of these cell phones then the airlines can provide a sound proof booth for cell phone use. Please vote NO to this plan. I am a cell phone user who is responsible enough to leave a restaurant if I receive a call. Most are not and flying would be even more terrible with people "fighting" over the use of cell phones.